"IN EVERYTHING GIVE THANKS"

Former Students Win Honors

We are happy to hear good reports of our former students who are now in our Nazarene Theological Seminary. Although they are no longer with us we feel they are a part of us and are always glad to hear of any progress they have made.

George Privett, Student Council President at Trevecca College 19-49-50 and brother of Calvin who is now attending Trevecca, has been elected treasurer of the Student Council at the Seminary, according to a recent issue of the student publication, Seminary News.

William Anderson, Jr., Nashville, Tennessee, Student Council President at Trevecca College 1951-52, and Champ Traylor, Blountstown, Florida, were on the honor roll for the Spring semester of last year. These men made all A grades, an accomplishment certainly to be proud of, especially in graduate school. Bob Benson received honorable mention.

Other students attending Seminary from Trevecca College are: Eugene Williams, Eugene Simpson, Lowell Foster, James Robinson, Dale Hilkert, and Marjorie Stockdale.

Other news from the seminary indicate that good progress in construction has been made on the new $300,000 Seminary building, at 17-00 East Meyer Boulevard, but the building will not be ready for actual occupancy before January 1, 1954.

Speech Class Judge In County-Wide Contest

On November 9, 1953, a group of students from the Speech Department took part in a county-wide speech contest at West High School as judges. Those who participated were: Carol Asbury, Audrey Sweeney, E. C. Rose, Peggy Dodd, Glen Keys, Atho Muse, Maxine Moore, Jerry Clay and Jimmy Matthews. Judging was done in the fields of poetry, extemporaneous speaking, original readings, and debate. All felt it was a very profitable evening in giving them experience to apply to their own work. They hope they may be given the privilege of working in more Nashville contests.

"Father, We Thank Thee"

Through the raging tempests on the rough waters of a great ocean, the Mayflower came sailing from the coasts of Europe. On the ship were consecrated souls who were searching for a New World—doing such with but one purpose in mind: to find a place wherein they could worship God as they so desired. After a long rugged journey the Pilgrim Fathers landed at Plymouth Rock. How thankful to God the Pilgrims were for the opportunity that was theirs in having a place in which they could worship and thank God as they wanted! How thankful they must have been in those days of 1620.

Because of this historical voyage across the Atlantic, we have America. America! The most envied country in the world! We have America because of our forefathers who loved God and dared to make their way into another country so they could better worship Him.

Today, we are enjoying the many freedoms that we have because of those who went before us. We have freedom from fear; freedom from want; freedom of speech; and then, freedom of religion is yet triumphant in this, our America. How wonderful it is to have the opportunity of going to church on Sunday mornings. How wonderful it is to take a stand for God day by day!

Thanksgiving Day is here again. Tomorrow is the day set aside in which we thank God for His blessings in those days of the past. Moreover, it is a day in which to thank God for the blessings that are ours today. Tomorrow the average American family will be seated around a table on which will be a large, juicy turkey; rich turkey gravy on mashed potatoes, and dressing; other vegetables with cranberry sauce as a salad besides a bountiful supply of pie and ice cream for dessert.

Tomorrow let us try to be extra thankful when we offer a prayer of thanksgiving before we eat. Let us not only recognize, but realize this day and its purpose. Our prayer must be that we will always be thankful for the blessings from God; not only tomorrow, but every day of the year.

A Capella Sings

In Louisville

Amid the yawns, which occurred from a 4 a.m. arising, the choir members gathered around a thirty-seven passenger Tennessee Coach Bus, boarded, and bid farewell to T. N. C. for the day.

After a six hour trip, which was filled with laughter, singing, but mostly sleep, the choir arrived in Louisville, Kentucky where they appeared in the City Auditorium, which was sponsored by the Broadway Nazarene Church. The Program consisted of:

Praise to the Lord ---- Christensen
He Hideth My Soul ---- Killion
Hallelujah For the Cross -- Bonar
I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked ----- O'Hara
Victory in Jesus -- Killion arr.
Nothing but the Blood -- Killion Arr.

Also various musical numbers were presented by groups within the choir.

The Sunday evening service was presented in Bowling Green, Kentucky with a program similar to the one presented in the morning service.

Librarian Attends Regional Conference

Mrs. Mackey, Trevecca Librarian, recently attended a regional conference for librarians sponsored by the State Department of Education. The Nashville Conference was held in the State Library and Archives Building. The theme of the conference was "The Role of the Librarian in a Changing Curriculum", the out-of-state consultant being Miss Nora Beust, Specialist in School and Children's Libraries.

The afternoon session was given over to a talk on the librarian's role in curriculum planning by Miss Beust, followed by a discussion period. During an evening dinner meeting, Miss Beust discussed books and how they help boys and girls to understand themselves and their world.

Miss Beust is an outstanding leader in school libraries and the librarians were fortunate to have her work with them.

Psalm Of Thanksgiving

Lord God of hosts, we render thanks

For all Thy mercies sure;
Thy tender love environs us
And will through life endure.

Teach us to know Thy perfect will,
Humble and meek to be,
May we, in gladness, praise Thy name

Throughout eternity.

Lord God of hosts, we offer thanks
And call upon Thy name;
A psalm of praise to Thee we sing,
Thy wonderous love proclaim.

Thou art our refuge and our strength,

There is no other power;
If sudden danger threatens us
We find in Thee a tower.

Lord God of host, we proffer praise,
Direct us on our way;
with grateful hearts we worship Thee

On this Thanksgiving Day.

Differences Between Love And Infatuation
As Revealed In Contemporary Research Studies

Characteristics of Infatuation:

1. Tends to be more frequent among young adolescents and children under teen age.
2. Simultaneous attachments to two or more tends to be frequent.
3. Tends to last but a short time (only a few weeks in most cases)
4. More quickly re-occurs soon after a given involvement has ended.
5. Is often the term applied to past attachments.
6. Tends to focus more frequently on unsuitable person.
7. Parents more often disapprove.
8. Narrowly focused on a few traits; mostly physical thrill.
9. Less frequently accompanied by ambition and wide interests.
10. Feelings of guilt, insecurity, and frustration are frequent.
11. Tends to be self-centered and restricted.
12. Boredom is frequent when there is no excitement or social amusement.
13. Little change in the relationship with the passing of time.
14. Problems and barriers are often disregarded; idealization may have little regard for reality.

Chapel Bells

Ding! Dong! Not only the ringing of the bells have announced the chapel services of the past few weeks, but they have been intermingled with prayers and shouts of victory from the students as they approach chapel. The Lord has truly poured out a great manifestation of his spirit upon the college.

Our week began with a very special speaker, Dr. L. T. Corlett, president of our Nazarene Theological Seminary. Dr. Corlett has had wide experience in relation with our Nazarene schools as he was Dean of Religion at Bethany-Peniel College and also President of Northwestern Nazarene College. He brought an inspiring message using the story of the talents from the scripture and an outstanding thought was, "Neither man or God can help someone under the disease of self-pity."

On the following day Dr. Mackey gave one of his timely talks on the thought of "Let the words of my mouth and the manifestations of my heart be acceptable unto thee O God." We had another special speaker on Monday. He was Rev. Dallas Baggat from Alabama who gave us a message on the comforting thought, "Christ is a Refuge." He brought out the thoughts that Christ is a better refuge because he is safer, nearer, and more universal than any other.

Dr. Corlett was again with us on Thursday with a message on "Living Today." He presented seven basic problems youth has to meet today. These were (1) secur-

Clio Society
Visit Jacksonville

On Wednesday, November 11, members from the Clio Society accompanied by Dr. Gresham began their trip to Florida to attend the Southern Historical Association meeting and see some of the historical sights.

The first major stop was at the Olustee Battle Field. This was the scene of an important battle during the Civil War and as was stressed by one of the members, the Confederates won. The first session of the Historical Society was on Thursday. The groups were divided into classes with several doctors lecturing on various countries and states.

On Friday night the group attended the historical association banquet. The retiring president of the Southern Historical Society, Dr. Kathryn Hanna gave an inspiring talk which proved to be a great challenge. Each member of the group was given a ticket which entitled him to go sight-seeing on Saturday.

Among the sights seen were: the oldest wooden school house in America which is located in St. Augustine, the oldest fort which is in Jacksonville, the Suwanee River, and Ponce De Leon's Fountain of Youth which was seen at a distance. A highlight of the sight-seeing tour was the ocean which some of the group had never seen before.

The trip was very profitable to the group in that it gave them the privilege of seeing some of the sights which are prominent in our history.

Truman Vs. Brownell

The late Harry Dexter White has become prominent in the national news again. Several days ago Attorney General Herbert Brownell charged former President Harry S. Truman for promoting White from assistant secretary of the treasury to U. S. Executive Director of the International Monetary Fund. This promotion was made despite FBI reports that White was a Russian Spy. These reports were sent to the White House in the early part of 1946.

Mr. Truman refused to testify before Senator McCarthy's (R-Wis.) investigating committee. Instead, he gave an address which was broadcast nationally over radio and television. The former President in a dramatic manner explained his side of the situation. In reference to the Attorney General's accusation he declared, "This charge is, of course, a falsehood, and the man who made it had every reason to know it is a falsehood . . . he lied to the American people." In the latter part of the speech he lambasted McCarthyism. "It is the corruption of truth . . . the spread of fear and destruction of faith in every level of our society." The Republicans are backing Brownell; the Democrats are continuing to stand for Truman.

Within twenty-four hours after Truman's speech FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover swore that the former President's promotion of White "hampered" FBI surveillance of the alleged Soviet spy. Also several congressmen offered their impression of Truman's speech. Rep. Harold Velde (R-Ill.), chairman of the house un-American activities committee that also unsuccessfully subpoenaed Truman to testify on the White case, said: "A typical smear attack on investigating committees . . . certain portions of the speech were obviously written by the Democrat ADA (Americans for Democratic Action) crowd." Senator McCarthy referred to Truman's address as an "Attack upon me."

down there and they're after me! Because I'm a wild turkey I can fly high; so I flew up here to the Tower. Those humans down there who are after my head will go home for Thanksgiving holidays soon. If I can just keep my head until then, maybe I won't lose it this year! Someone over in Tidwell Hall lost his head and put linberger cheese on the heaters . . . No wonder these fellows can't get anymore studying done. . . . Poor Gordon Beckett almost lost his head too the other night when he forgot to pay his bus fare . . . Edra Hammond gave the English Composition class a good laugh, too, when she got idiom confused with idiotic on a test . . . I almost choked on a gobble when Juanita Orndoff took a tumble down the stairs in the McClurkan Building. Books and billfold went sailing in all directions . . . Wyoma Sissom got a big let down when she flew to the first floor of McKay Hall to answer a phone call at 11:30 p.m. It was a false alarm . . . roommate trickery again . . . Pete Malone looked sad when he got his Library Science grade but his class is at 10:00 o'clock and he took his test with the nine o'clock group . . . too bad but we live and learn (or do we) . . . Gobble, Gobble!! I see Mrs. Phillips driving around the campus. I noticed she got her driver's license the other day . . . I must find a better place to hide. Thanksgiving's getting closer and closer.

The turkey flew down to the orchard for comfort but not before he gobbled gobs of news to me about you . . . on the Tower.

H. S. Seniors Entertain

The High School Senior class entertained the Junior class at a reception on November 10, at the Taystee Bread Company.

The main dish of the meal was Italian Spaghetti. Musical entertainment was furnished by Delorus Brown and all joined in some games.

The reception committee was composed of: Dolly Smith, Bonnie Williams, Eldridge Hudgins, Berkeley Newbill and Patsy Decker, chairman.

Kentucky Caravan Visits Trevecca

"Thank you, and thank you again", were the words of our president, Dr. Mackey, to the East Kentucky Caravan after receiving the annual T. N. C. budget of $42,000 dollars from Rev. D. S. Sommerville, district superintendent. After a banquet in the cafeteria the members of the student body met with the East Kentuckians in the McClurkan Building for a brief service. The district treasurer, Rev. Asa Sparks and the district superintendent had the privilege of presenting the largest budget in history to Trevecca College.

On Monday, November 16, about 4:00 in the afternoon, a caravan of nearly twenty cars lead by a police escort came upon the campus of T. N. C. Shortly afterwards the Kentuckians were welcomed by Charles Duckett, Prof. Phillips, and Dr. Gresham on the steps of the Administration Building. Later in the day the caravan was given a banquet by the Kentucky club, with R. T. Kendall acting as master of ceremonies.

The program opened with the entire group singing "My Old Kentucky Home." The college choir rendered the Alma Mater and two other selections. After a delicious meal a special song was sung by Danny Godby. The keynote address was given by Dr. Mackey. He spoke of the progress that the Church of the Nazarene was making in education, and how Trevecca was gaining both spiritually and materially.

Almost 125 people were represented from the East Kentucky district. This included several pastors of the district, along with many young people who hope to attend Trevecca some time in the future. Many Trevecca students are looking forward to seeing some of them next fall.

After the evening service in the Alumni Auditorium the dormitories were opened for "open house." This climaxed the evening and helped make the East Kentuckians stay more interesting and enjoyable.

Personality Parade

If you have noticed Wayne Sharps, you see in him a quiet, but very sincere young preacher. Wayne was born in High Point, North Carolina, on November 18, 1933. Believing whole heartedly in the scripture "Rear a child in the way that he should go, and when he is old, he will not depart from it," Mr. and Mrs. Lowell V. Sharps have done a very good job in rearing their two children Velva and Wayne with whom we are acquainted, They now hail from Harrisonburg, Virginia, and Wayne is the very efficient and capable president of the Virginia Club this year. He is also sales manager on the Darda Staff. Other organizations of his affiliation are Clio Society, Ministerial Association, and Christian Worker's Association.

The Christian Worker's chose Wayne as their vice-president and as captain of the street service. We find none other in our student body who is any more sincerely interested in souls than he. He places his heart and his all into this work, and is an excellent personal worker. He has been seen talking to men about their soul's welfare on buses and trains and seems to carry a heavy burden for the unsaved everywhere.

Another of his talents is that of playing a trombone.

Presently he is majoring in history and minoring in religion. He plans to go to the Seminary after his one more year here at Trevecca.

Obviously it is both the Democrats' and Republicans' inclination that the main objective of the situation is politics. Both parties are trying to protect their reputation. The White case continues to make national headlines.

It has never been a custom of this columnist to recognize a person or persons just to have filler material, but when a person excels in his field we like to give honor where honor is due.

Church street has put on its Christmas dress and Nashville is showing a spirit of the holiday season. The football season is coming to an end, the most successful pigskin season in our history. Credit is due to four boys for their sportsmanship, leadership, and Christian character in directing their respective teams in victory or defeat. We salute the captains: Robert Breedlove, Howard Spruill, Danny Godby, and Tom Traylor.

Leaders in another field, but also a very important one, are our colorful cheer leaders. Faithful to the cause whether crowds were large or small nine girls have very capably boosted their teams in defeat as well as victory. Orchids to our cheer leaders: Peggy Dodd, Francis Winder, Anna Stucki, Eleanor Richardson, Lois Morrow, Barbara Jordan and Vicki Howard.

During this Thanksgiving week, take sufficient time out to join the writer in thanking God for all that is ours. The spiritual blessings, the physical blessings and the material blessings are ours only because God lives today.

Hiking is still the main interest with the Girl's Athletic Association and they covered 3 3/4 miles Saturday morning. The climax of the fall hiking season will come November 21, when all teams will hike together and celebrate with a barbecue at Joelton.

Captains:

High School ----- Lois Morrow
 Freshman ----- Mary Jo Bowling
 Sophomore ---- Carol Ann Asbury
 Upperclass ---- Norma Carpenter

The G. A. A.'s vote of appreciation goes to their sponsor Mrs. Gresham and their co-sponsor Miss Cooner for their participation in the hikes.

Green Wave Tie Lions

The oft-defeated Freshman team won a moral victory Tuesday by holding the championship Sophomores to a 0 to 0 tie.

In the final conference game of the season for both teams there was a frequency of punting. Neither team was willing to take chances. The mighty Lions had to fight hard to protect their string of seventeen straight victories. The Lions took to the air quite frequently, not stressing bodily contact, as they played with the Tea Bowl game in mind. There they will face the ALL-STARS in the game of the year.

The Freshmen succeeded in stopping the top offensive team in the conference for the first time this season. Pate and Godby, two ALL-STARS, were responsible for breaking up the Lions offense. Final score Soph's 0 — Frosh 0.

Football Champions

To Be Honored At Banquet

On December 5, 1953 the Trevecca Athletic Association, composed of the Girl's and Men's Associations, will sponsor a banquet for its members and the faculty honoring the 1953 football champions.

The banquet, which will begin at 7:00 P.M. in the school cafeteria, will highlight the various phases of the football season at TNC.

A surprise guest speaker will be one of the big moments of the affair. Also on the program will be films of the Tea Bowl game in full color. The highlight of the evening will be the presentation of the trophy to the champion Sophomore Lions.

Tickets will go on sale December 1st. Get yours early as there is a limited number to be sold.

On Friday we had a two hour chapel service honoring our Founders Day. The program was divided up into three parts; the past, present and future Trevecca. The speakers were John T. Benson, son of one of the former presidents of Trevecca; Grant Browning; Professor Phillips; Mrs. Mackey; Harry Ulmer; Charles Duckett; Dr. Homer Adams and Dr. Mackey.

On Monday a wonderful spirit came over the chapel service. There were shouts of victory and before the first song was finished a soul was at the altar. Then as if a tight wire had snapped from around the students they came flocking to the altar until it was filled. The front benches were filled and extra chairs were brought. We shall long remember that service.

The following day was another

Freshmen Maul Eagles

The unpredictable Freshman Green-Wave, a team that has been up and down all season was up for Saturday's game with the upperclassmen and rolled over them 56 to 6.

Seven Freshmen scored in the game that set a record of most points scored in a game by one team.

The Freshmen scored on the second play of the game on a pass from Cassidy to Pate. They kicked off and again took the ball away from the Eagles and scored on a pass play.

The Green-Wave in trying to hold the score down used every player but were still leading 25 to 0 at half time.

Cassidy, Godby and Pate starred for the victors. Cassidy's passing accounted for seven TD's and he knicked their two extra points. Scoring touchdowns were Godby 3, Pate 2, Fulwood, Rowan, Spotloe and Ochertree. Heaberlin scored the only TD for the Eagles. Final score 56 to 6.

Thanksgiving

1. The time for thanksgiving — always
2. The subject of thanksgiving — all things.
3. The object of thanksgiving — God.
4. The manner of thanksgiving — in the name of Jesus
5. The companion of thanksgiving — pray without ceasing.
6. The reason for thanksgiving — this is the will of God.
