PRESIDENT MARK R. MOORE

FOR ALL SEASONS

Today I look over the gorgeous array of redbud. Their petals are already drifting away into the breeze. The dogwood blossoms nearby have opened for their brief exhibit of cloud-like beauty. Spring will soon take its bow from the stage of seasons to make way for summer. Thus the cycle of time and seasons moves on and waits for no man.

Life too has its cycles. Childhood scampers into youth, youth struggles into the experience of adulthood, and adults hope to grow old gracefully. Eternity beckons- Charles F. Kettering caught this movement forward when he said, "My interest is in the future because I am going to spend the rest of my life there."

We all live and plan for the "seasons of life." But, we must never forget that there are things which are stable throughout life. Some are simple things such as a re-assuring smile, a warm handclasp, a word fitly spoken and even unspoken, yet unmistakable, understanding, and supportive.

Paul reminds us of qualities of life which change not and urges us "... whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things." (Phil. 4: 8). And in his eloquent discourse on the greatest values of life he summarized by saying, "And now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love." (1 Cor. 13: 13).

We have all been the recipients of love from parents, friends, neighbors, teachers, and Christ. Many have also learned that the greatest joy is also in giving. While in this institution of learning, if we have grasped anew this truth and practiced giving love to others, it will be true of us as it was when they said of the early Christians, "Behold, how they love one another."

THE PHASES OF

LEADERSHIP

Jesus People

Strength From His Shelter

Here in these walls of learning,
That are tightening even closer,
I realize I have little strength
From within to face the world without.
Oh, lead me to the strength
I forgot to draw on.
Blessed calmness, peace therein.

Had I not been here before
To feel the weakness of myself,
I would not know there is
Assurance to meet the walls closing within.
Never trust to leave the shelter,
Without taking the strength
He offers you for Blessed calmness, peace within.

— Edee Lambert

"I'M A CANDLE"

My life is just a candle
Burning in His name,
For so long I was dark and cold
Until Jesus started my flame.

Now I shine to those around me,
I light their darkness with mine.
I want my fire to stay glowing,
So, Jesus, through me, can shine.

I allow no one or nothing
To stop my heavenly glow,
My fire is kindled by prayer,
I refuse to let it get low.

I have no way of knowing
How long my flame will last,
Is my candle tall, or short?
It seems to burn so fast.

But, it doesn't really matter,
How long the wick within,
My purpose is to shine to others,
To light their way out of sin.

That's why I must keep on burning,
So others can see,
Jesus can light their candles,
Just as He did for me.

— Danny Goddard

Jesus People, singing people,
What a celebration when we're
gathered here!
Jesus people, happy people,
What a jubilation for the Lord to hear!

Brothers and sisters gather together sharing our needs, our thoughts, and our prayers
Knowing above we have a Saviour, who will answer all of our prayers.

Our prayers and petitions reaching the Father.
Knowing He'll answer in one of His ways.
Lifting our spirits to heavenly places
Lifting our voices in joy and in praise.

Jesus people, singing people,
What a celebration when we're
gathered here!
Jesus people, happy people,
What a jubilation for the Lord to hear!

— David Graeser

You Come To Me

Like a fresh spring rain
in the quiet time of day
Gently, You come to me.

As a snow-covered mountain
With its beauty and grace
Majestic and everlasting
Gently, You come to me.

When things crash around me
And the world seems to cave in,
Gently, You come to me.

How I love you!
How good You are to me!
And as always —

Gently, You come to me.
— Jill Malo

Twilight

Dusk's shadows creep their way
With the night on their coat tails
Following the day
Sweeping misty blues
'Cross the rose-crested west
Opening up fountains
Moon-laden, star-blest
Pouring from endless airy heights beyond
Shining bright faces
To welcome the dawn.

— Tim Spruill

All that I've been is me —
Sometimes leading, sometimes following
Sometimes growing, sometimes falling back
Sometimes strong, but most times weak.

I've always been me
by myself — trying my best
To be the best —
But I'm just me.

All that I want to be is you —
You encourage me to lead, and guide me as I follow
You give me courage to grow, and strength
When I want to fall back
You make me feel strong, when I'm my weakest.

I want to be like you, Lord
Because when I am
I'm at my very best.
— Carol Wight

Sunset

Splendid orange blast of color
Sinks below the willow's arms
And finally winds its way beyond the horizon
Down into a vast sea of space —

How I wonder what lies beyond
The flaming red ball of fire
Beyond in the days it will open and fill
How I wonder what will happen out there.

Giant burning circle, a star
Away with the miles so far
How I wonder what awaits in the untold days I'll share
Where the laughter and tears are yet unheard —
How I wonder what will happen out there.

Hold for me these days, I pray.
Many hours of life — full, rich and growing.
Paint for me many sunsets such as this,
Many twilights, 'til I get where I'm going.
— Tim Spruill

Listen

Oh, God, these feelings overwhelm me.
So many questions, problems, issues, demands.
They all press tighter,
'Til I wonder why I'm here.
Then I stop to listen to You,
And, I ask through tears;
Have I hung on longer
Than I dare expect
Your love to linger with me.
Then, Lord, new feelings overpower me,
And I realize Your love.
Yes, You still love me.
You know my inward pain,
For you walk here with me.

— Edee Lambert

Smiling Eyes

Your eyes are so nice
They have a mischief, a sparkle
What are you thinking,
With that secretive smile?
I catch your glance —
Your eyes sparkle and shine —
And that smile ...

— Jill Malo

Life keeps changing, with everything rearranging.
Constant changes leave me wondering;
Will today be the same tomorrow?
Big impressions turn out common,
And the common keeps me wondering,
What will invade the tomorrow?
Life is not made to settle for the common.

There is new hope for each change.
For the wondering there is a reason.
Tomorrow makes today a more valuable
To prepare for the changes of tomorrow.

— Edee Lambert

Matthew 25:1-13

For the class of '78, if you were asked to write a song,
 What would you sing, so we could all hum along,
 What would you write, what would you say,
 How would you describe our good ole' days.

My thoughts ran from VIPS to Valentines,
 And those I dreamed would be mine.
 Then I thought about Homecoming,
 And all the flair of the Spring Fling King.
 It's been fun — you know it's been great —
 Tell me how did we ever rate?
 Well I guess it must have been fate
 That we should share these good ole' days.

Once some guys went to retreat, they thought they'd take a little hike;
 But after thirty-two miles they decided to stay all night.
 And our ballgames were fun, even those we never won —
 Don't get me wrong, but you know if you've been to one
 That we, "Shoot 'em down, Hey, We don't mess around."

Well if it seems like I'm ramblin'; on and on That's because I was at the Volleyball Marathon
 So I'll try to finish and close this song
 Hope you've all been able to sing along
 We've made it through from beginning to end
 And best of all we've made some good ole' friends.

And let's not forget our opportunity to be educated at TNC,
 There were profs, papers, tests, grades — well almost all the time these have been good ole' days.

Thank you, God, for good times with You,
 You've touched our lives, changed us through and through,
 Now as You guide our separate ways, just one more thing that we want to say
 That is we give to You — all the praise — for making these — OUR GOOD OLE' DAYS!

Trevecca received her first official school flag. The Senior class of 1978 made the presentation on June 2nd at the close of Awards Chapel.

In the tradition of leaving something for the school, the Seniors developed the idea of having a flag to leave behind. It was a noble act from the Senior class.

The flag shall always fly high on T.N.C. campus upholding the symbolic purple and white.

Much appreciation goes to the Senior class of 1978 for our first Trevecca flag.

Senior President Paul Cleckner and class sponsor Toby Williams raise the flag.

Seniors Paul Cleckner and Pat Bryant led the processional to the flag pole following chapel.

FRESHMEN AND PARENTS WERE

It has become a tradition to honor incoming Freshmen and parents with a reception their first weekend on campus.

As you can see by the pictures, the different departments set up their own areas in which prospective majors may browse around and become acquainted with the faculty. It was a good time for parents to become familiar with faces that will take on the responsibility of teaching their children.

It was a first step for Trevecca to reach out to Freshmen and family to say, "Welcome!"

OPENING CONVOCATION WEEK

The student body was welcomed back to campus by a full week of speakers and special singers. It was all in part to help the Freshmen become adjusted and accustomed to local faces around campus. The topics were wide and varied. It was definitely a boost in the spirits to start off the year right.

RAT DAYS TAKE

Dear Dad and Mom,

Today I was transformed into one of the most unusual creatures you have ever seen. My clothes were put on inside-out and backwards — no less! My hair had a hundred tiny braids. I wore two different shoes which made me gallop instead of walk. My face had war paint on it. I ran around chanting outlandish remarks, rode brooms and sang fervently to unknown onlookers. The funny thing is at the end of the day I was patted on the back and made feel real welcomed. You know, I think I'm really going to like it here!

Love,
Your Rat

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS FROM THE SOUTH

Trevecca designs three very special weekends for High School students to visit the campus. The Very Important People come from the south-eastern educational zone consisting of the North and South Carolinas, Kentucky, Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, and Florida.

It is a time for the students to get a glimpse of what college life is all about. The Public Relations department really rolls out the red carpet to give each one a very special welcome.

Pickett State Park was the name of the place in Jamestown, Tennessee where students took off to for a weekend of relaxation. Despite the rain that came steadily all weekend, it proved to be a beneficial trip.

Dr. Gerard Reed spoke in four sessions dealing with the "Lord's Prayer." He is a professor at Mid-America Nazarene College where he teaches history and philosophy. Dr. Reed was well received and was a very challenging speaker.

HOMECOMING MARKS A DECADE

An old idea was revived this year by bringing Homecoming back to fall quarter. Many friends, family, and alumni were here to celebrate the annual affair. In chapel the Moore's were honored for the decade of leadership given to Trevecca. During the halftime of the basketball game, Miss Sherry Heard was crowned the Homecoming queen. She was elected by the associated student body to fulfill this honor. The Downings were brought back to campus for a concert after the game. It was a weekend of many great happenings.

Dr. Moore received a hugh gavel in recognition of his ten years at Trevecca.

WINTER

WINTER OLYMPICS STARTED OFF

The Freshmen class started the snow season right by sponsoring the Winter Olympics. This was a first for the T.N.C. community and was well attended. The contests consisted of single-sled races, pillow-whopping and double-team sled races.

The cold, snowy weather lasted for quite a time. As those endless white-coated days lagged on, the snowball fights ceased, the snowmen tumbled down along with many others on the icy glaze. The newness wore off and it became just another creation of nature — almost taken for granted.

A NEW PHASE OF EDUCATIONAL

The Division of Extramural Studies at Trevecca is new. It is an attempt by the college to better fulfill its mission to provide liberal arts education in a christian context by taking that education to people where people are.

The Nashville East Campus is the first phase. This is an adult education program offering classes at night and weekends. This year about 400 are enrolled.

In process of development is a campus in Orlando, Florida. Future plans call for other campuses in other places.

Summer Workshops, Learning Experience Programs, Workshops to Advance Youth, Continuing Education for the Minister, and study tours are also part of this rapidly expanding area of the Trevecca community.

SOLOMON'S PORCH THE BEGINNING

Solomon's Porch was the creation of dedicated Trevecca students on campus. It took alot of long, hard work in many endless hours. McKay Hall was the selected site to be transformed into a coffee-house type place. It became an entertainment center on weekends and a meeting place throughout the weeks.

Tim Elliot headed up the committee which took on the challenge of making Solomon's Porch one of the major happenings on campus in '78.

BASKETBALL SEASON ENDED WITH

After coaching the Trojan basketball team for three seasons, Coach Elmore Vail surprised the Trevecca community on January 30, 1978 and resigned. The announcement came amidst a disappointing season. STUDENTS DIRECT THE SPRING DRAMA FESTIVAL

The Lyceum committee presented a spring drama festival. Jeff Thompson was director of one-act play "High Window". Marc Sims directed "The Flattering Word". It was a fine change for students to perform and entertain, too.

Julian Cowart gives Kim Wonders an older look.

Bev Fulkerson on center stage.

"Don't ask me," says Steve Pennington to Bruce Oldham, "You're the priest."

A sweet old lady played by Denise Barnett.

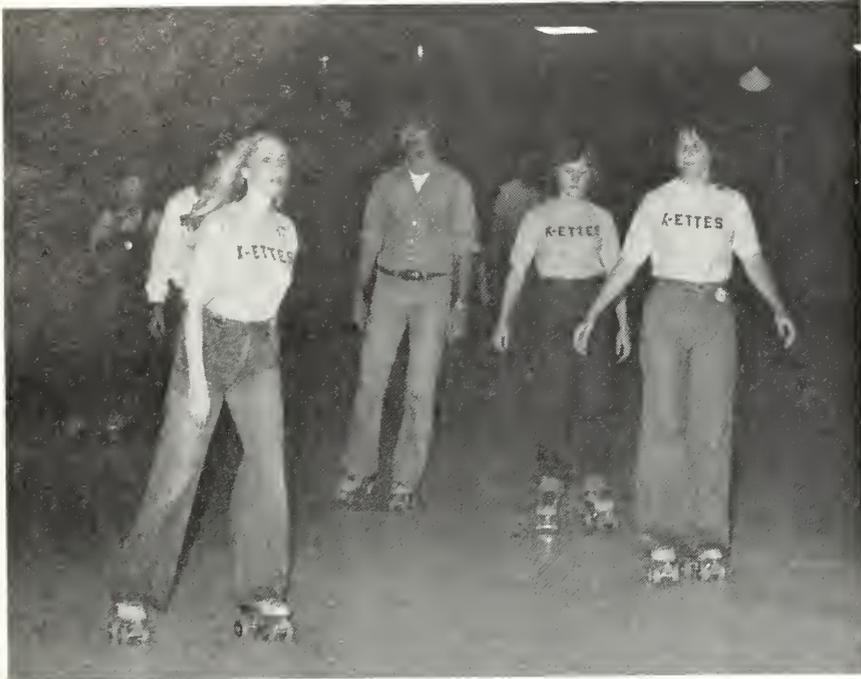

Denise Barnett watches Brenda Barnard pretty-ups.

Terrific drama trio Bev Fulkerson, Kim Wonders, and Steve Pennington.

KETTES SPONSOR SKATE FOR MS

Kettes were able to raise over $500.00 for the Jerry Lewis Muscular Dystrophy drive. Several students took pledges for the skate which lasted for twelve hours. There were many beginners but only thirteen which stuck it out to the very end. It was a very worth-while task to take on and hopefully the money raised will go on to help someone's life a little better.

The beginning skaters

VOLLEYBALL MARATHON FOR CYSTIC FIBROSIS

Club sponsor Wayne Gallup played twenty-four hours.

Circle K raised over $1000.00 for Cystic Fibrosis on May 5 and 6. The money was raised through the annual twenty-four hour volleyball marathon. This was the fifth marathon for the club. The club played against many others clubs and classes on campus. Bruce Oldham, First Vice-President for the club was the head of the event and termed it quite a success. Those club members who played the twenty-four hours were: Wayne Gallup (Sponsor), Dan Gray, Marc Vann, Bucky Burnsed, Jimmy Taylor, Chuck Lovell, Faalupega Faoa, Dean Murray, and Rick Soloky.

Worn-out club members.

Weary players take a break at the concessions.

Senior Baseball Team Members are: Greg Robinson, Barry Bennett, Jimbo Bennett, and Kenny Thomas.

KENNY THOMAS

NAMED NAIA ALL-AMERICAN

As an appreciation to Kenny Thomas, Coach Green retired his baseball jersey to the trophy case.

Senior Thomas brought a great honor to himself and to Trevecca this year when he was named to the National All-American second team as catcher.

K.T. has been a great asset to the baseball team the four years he has been here. This year he did an extremely good job leading the batting averages, had the second highest number of runs, batted in the third largest number of runs, and placed third in the listing of homerunners.

This honor is a first for Trevecca and we are extremely proud of what Kenny Thomas has done for us.

Coach Green presented K.T. with his certificate to the NAIA.

1978 VSAC CHAMPS

The Trojan baseball team became the first team ever to win the VSAC conference. It came after games against Milligan College from Johnson City, TN., and Belmont College in Nashville.

The Trevecca/Milligan game was played at Jackson Field before a crowd that came to see Trevecca win the VSAC tournament.

The win brought the banner home to Trevecca, and VSAC champions. The Trevecca community is extremely proud of Coach Bill Green and his baseball team.

A TOUCH ON THE LIGHTER SIDE

A Look At Life 40 Years From Now As Seen By Humorist:

e.g. smith

To begin with, I want to point out that it was Rhett Butler, in the classic film, GONE WITH THE WIND, who had "Scarlett Fever" until the very end of the film and book. Now on a more serious note. "B" flat.

What will be happening forty years from now in the year 2018? Will the world be the same as we know it today? Will body temperature be lowered? Will Farrah Fawcett still be lovely and popular? What will some of this year's students (mostly Seniors) be doing at the approximate age of sixty years. The following are purely fictional and any resemblance to any of these examples actually happening is purely coincidental and the author cannot be held responsible.

Pam Edwards has finally admitted that she never knew what "CPA" meant, but that's okay with Carter because he never did either.

Tom Floyd has grown and shaven his beard 23 times since graduation. Now, in a final permanent effort, is attempting to grow it on his back.

Jeryl Friend still thinks she looks like Jerry Crummer and has grown a moustache and set out to prove it. Eddie Glenn Rosendehalaluljah has recently changed his name to Eddie Jones and only has two hours left at TNC before completion, after which he plans to retire and collect social security. He is the world's only surviving professional student.

Jerry Carl Crummer has just re-joined the Ridge Runners after 39 years of separation. He has finally bought a harmonica that can be tuned and will be appearing with the group on the Planet Mars doing funny comedy gags.

Chuck Green is still engaged to Fonda Ferguson and now that he has their $500,000.00 "future" home paid for, he says that plans for their marriage can now be completed.

Byron Middendorf now owns Colonial Bakery, but has changed the name to "Middendorf Muffins." Steve Pennington is head puppeteer on Sesame Street and has sewn himself into a puppet suit refusing to come out until puppets get the right to vote.

Gina Jackson immediately following graduation was frozen in the Pioneer food freezer. She was said to have been waiting on a secret boyfriend who always came there to warm her up.

Terry Gregory has just completed the School of Hard Knocks (and other various engine noises) and now plans to study surgical mechanics.

Judy Benson has gone on to become the thinnest girl in Florida and has also become a Tampa Bay Cheerleader making a million dollars a year, but will soon be moving to a cabin in Arkansas.

Sherry Foster now resides in Trevecca Health Care Center due to mental collapse after misplacing fourteen stethoscopes in two days then finding them on her neck, added to the fact that she "accidentally" threw half the patients medical reports in the dumpster.

Bruce Oldham has finally admitted he had always wished he were Doug Oldham and that he secretly had dreams of forcing Larry Cummings to eat sour jell-o.

Pomar Tootoo recently did a guest shot on Hawaii Five-0, appearing as the new police headquarters. Fonda Ferguson lost the ability to comb her hair and water plants and has begun to wonder if Chuck is just using the house payment as an excuse.

Somchai is still Taiwanese and has mastered the Greek language and plans to attend the Athens School of Orthodonture but doesn't understand why.

Sherwyn Nabors is one of the best stand up comics, but has developed a strange fear of widths.

Randy Benefield now owns Benson Hall and has turned it into a preachers ski resort.

Paul Cleckner still gets himself and his Dad confused and is head coach of the newest pro football team, "The Nashville Dwarfs."

A FANTASTIC SPRING FLING

The Freshmen Class presented one of the best Spring Fling's ever to hit campus. The weekend of activities started out on Thursday night when the Alpha and Omega players presented the Diary of Adam and Eve. It was a look at the lives of Adam and Eve in the beginning in a humorous way. On Friday there was a picnic in the evening and then at 8:00 p. m., the Spring Fling Pageant was presented. The theme of the pageant was "Puttin' On The Ritz." McClurkan Auditorium was transformed into a scene song. The representatives for the pageant were selected by their classes and they were: Senior — Blanchard Howard, Junior — Rob Irwin, Sophomore — Gary Spahr, Freshmen — Ron Jones, Bobby King, Jimmy Taylor. The king was elected at the time of the pageant following four types of competition. The competition consisted of formal wear, casual wear, athletic wear and a talent contest. Of course the tradition of the pageant is to elect a Freshman since they sponsor the event. This year the honor went to Jimmy Taylor. On Saturday, a carnival was held in between the clouds of rain. They also held the second-annual wiffle ball golf tournament. A lot of hard work went into the whole affair and the Freshman Class definitely has something to look back on and be proud of.

The Alpha-Omega Players presented the Diary of Adam and Eve.

Master of Ceremonies, freshman class sponsor Fred Mund.

Ron Jones, Rob Irwin and Blanchard Howard get into the routine of "Puttin' on the Ritz."

Talented Rob Irwin sang, "Me and My Shadow," accompanied by Roosevelt Burrell.

FEATURING "PUTTIN' ON THE RITZ"

Brenda Miller, Wayne Pittard, and Carol Ernest sang during intermission.

1978 Spring Fling King Jimmy Taylor and his escort Charlotte Warren.

Freshman candidate Bobby King gets ready for "Puttin' on the Ritz."

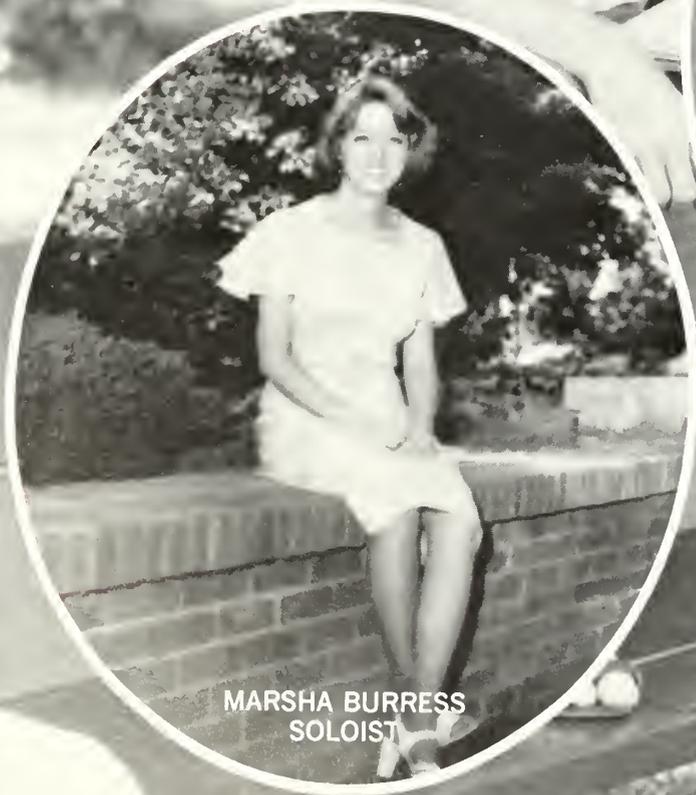

Larry Cummings and Cheri Waldrip demonstrate the Kissing Booth at the carnival.

JUNIORS PRESENT SENIORS WITH ANDRUS, BLACKWOOD AND COMPANY

The Hilton central held the Junior Senior banquet activities this year. The set-up was done by juniors who had spent a lot of time to make everything special for their upperclassmen.

A reception was held in honor of seniors after the supper and entertainment by a favorite gospel group Andrus, Blackwood and Company.

Many pleasant memories were made during the evening. It was a successful effort by the junior class that gave the seniors the best of all banquet.

After dinner music was provided

Mary Jo Cagale admires her handsome dressed escort Mark Osborne.

An enjoyable meal with friends.

Lynn Holmes, Andy Warren, and Bobby King beg for a cup of water, please!

SOMETIMES THERE COMES A TIME TO DEPART

To Trevecca we came,
And as a result we will never be the same.
We came with varying abilities and talents
And combined them into a very strong force.
We set our goals high, and were not satisfied, until we were class of the year four years in a row and had left the legacy of a TNC flag!
So, now as we graduate,
we will go out and spread the Good News to our world.
And the sun will never set on the influence and legacy of the Class of '78.

There really ought to be a college
(somewhere)

- ... where minds are trained, and character is developed
- ... where the faculty are Bible believing men and women
- ... where the right facilities coupled with a high standard of education is offered
- ... where Christ is exalted, and the Bible is taught to be the Word of God
- ... where all activities sponsored by the college are geared to Christian youth

YOUR EDUCATION DOESN'T STOP HERE

Your education doesn't stop with a baccalaureate degree. It begins there. Once you enter the world of work, you will gain valuable experience and really discover what it's all about to use what you learned in college.

Take the Air Force for example. As a commissioned officer you'll be handed executive responsibility on your very first job. You'll manage people and complex systems. You'll be expected to perform well, and you'll be paid well, too. It's worth working for.

You can get there through the Air Force ROTC program. In fact, we have a scholarship plan that will net you $100 a month tax free and pay for all tuition, books and lab fees. And that will free you to concentrate on your studies so you can get well prepared for where you're headed.

Check it out. Find out how you can get into a "graduate" program like the Air Force. It's a great way to serve your country, and possibly find your formal education extended at Air Force expense as well.

Believing In Trevecca

Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow

Dr. Glen Jones, Superintendent

P.O. Box 8097

Chattanooga, TN. 37411

Each quarter is unique at Trevecca. A new look comes over the campus as each season begins a new quarter. Thus is why we chose "Seasons," to outline the theme of this year's book.

It has been another rewarding experience to edit the 1978 DARDA. I would like to personally thank these who helped me in so many ways: Dr. J.J. Wheelbarger — our sponsor, Harold McGehee — Josten's representative, Danny Goddard, my staff, John T. Benson, Jr., and Larry Cummings.

Special credit goes to Emma's Florist for the cover materials.

Thanks to each of you for the numerous times you stopped by the office and inquired on how things were going.

We hope we have produced a book which will hold numerous memories that you may relive each time you pick up your book.

Thank you again for the opportunity to serve you.

Karen Carter

Editor 1977-78
